

| | | | |
|---|-------------------------------------|--|--|
| STATE Maryland | COUNTY Talbot | TOWN OR VICINITY OXFORD VICINITY (Cambridge vicinity) ^{3p} | |
| INDEX NUMBER MD 21-DXFO.V.2- | MONUMENT Otwell | GOLDSBOROUGH CREEK | |
| REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE | H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. MD-706 | Period: late 17th century ¹⁶⁷⁰ Present condition: good ^{C 1721} | |
| PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | Builder: Goldsborough family | |
| PUBLISHED DRAWINGS | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | Description: Brick, story and a half, with interior end chimneys; T-shape plan; gambrel roof; second-floor joists project at eaves; stone foundation under part of building; like many houses of region, stairs have tulip carved on each step-end. | |
|  *includes 1 caption pages   FBJ.   GPO 6-8369  | | History:  Nicholas Goldsborough of  10-444 HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY  | |

PRES OWNER - MARGARET GOLDSBOROUGH

Malcolm Regis, Weymouth, England, was the progenitor of this family in Maryland. He settled on Kent Island in 1670. His son Robert owned "Ashbey" in Talbot County.

FORMAN p. 178, 179 (INCL. FLOOR PLAN)

EARLE, MARYLAND'S COLONIAL EASTERN SHORE, p. 41

EARLE - CHESAPEAKE BAY COUNTRY, p. 360

Prepared by Frederick D. Nichols 1940